invite you to participate in a

Relationship Support Group for Women

Does your partner make you feel bad about yourself?

Are you scared to go home?

Are you being hurt by someone you love?

YOU ARE NOT ALONE. SHALOM BAYIT IS HERE TO HELP.

Whether you are coping with something from the past or present, this group is for you. We welcome women of all Jewish backgrounds and affiliations, women in same-gender relationships, women with non-Jewish partners, and non-Jewish women desiring a Jewish healing atmosphere.

The group will meet in a confidential South Peninsula location

Services also available in Marin, San Francisco, South Bay & East Bay.

New 8 Week Group Forming November 2016
on the South Peninsula

"Being with the group went from awkward 'how is it possible I am here' to a feeling of strength, understanding, humanity, and most importantly, knowing I am not alone. This happens to educated women, just like me. Thank you."
