

EMBODIED BROTHERHOOD:

A MEN'S RETREAT

SHALOM BAYIT

FACILITATORS

Ophir Haberer

& Dor Haberer have been putting on Men & Jewish Permaculture retreats for the past three years. They both are holistic chefs, rites-of-passage educators, and reside at Canticle Farm, an interfaith, restorative justice, urban permaculture center in Oakland, CA. Dor is a Shiatsu Practitioner and completing his Master's in eco-social design with Gaia University. Ophir serves as Shalom Bayit's MenschUp Facilitator, leading the men's initiative for the Bay Area's Jewish domestic violence agency, is releasing his book The Essence Underneath, and just completed his training in Esalen massage.

WHAT IS THE RETREAT ABOUT?

This will be a 3-day virtual retreat for male-identifying folks to come together in a safe container of vulnerability, authentic creative expression, earth-based/mystical Jewish ritual, nature connection exercises, allyship skillbuilding, and a variety of movement practices.

GUEST EDUCATORS

Throughout the weekend, there are going to be some amazing guest educators:

Paul Pule, author of Ecological Masculinities

Zelig Golden, founder Wilderness Torah, facilitator of wilderness solos

Women/non-binary panel w/Taya Shere, & Cedar Shapiro of Kohenet Hebrew Priestesses

May 14-May 17, 2020

Apply by May 8

(folks all across the Americas welcome)
